

Robert C. Wisner

Managing Partner

Robert C. Wisner is the president of The Paragon Alliance Group, LLC, and a Managing Partner of parent company, U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group, and has provided leadership as founder of Paragon since its inception in 2000. As president, Rob oversees all aspects of the company with a primary focus on business development, marketing, plan design and consulting.

Rob started his employee retirement plan administration career in 1982 having served as corporate plan administrator for one of the country's pioneer 401(k) Plans. He furthered his career serving as manager of custom plan record keeping for a company that developed into one of the largest third-party record keepers in the nation.

Rob holds a Bachelor of Science degree in administration/accounting from Bloomsburg University. Rob also continues to develop his credentials obtaining Professional Education credits each year. He serves as a member of The Advisory Committee for the Retirement Plan Division of two prodigious international financial institutions.

Rob enjoys spending time with his family, pets and friends. He also enjoys playing golf. For many years, he was active in his local community coaching within various youth athletic programs. He also sponsors a softball team after retiring from playing.