

Christopher Higgins

Director

U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group

Chris Higgins is a Director and Business Development Executive with USEBSG's Rochester office. He brings a significant resume of banking experience as well as sales expertise to his position, both as an associate and banking officer.

He is responsible for an expanding client base that extends downstate and throughout a diverse client base, including public and private sectors. Chris will consult and foster business relationships that expand business opportunities across the state from public to corporate entities.

Chris is licensed Life, Accident and Health and graduated from Elmira College with a Bachelor of Science degree with a concentration in Business Management. He is active with the Rochester Young Professionals business organization.